The State of the Blood in Pulmonary Consumption.

The greatest and most terrible diseases with which we have to contend are those of the lungs and pulmonary organs, because they attack the very citadel of life. It is in these important organs that the vital air is received, and upon which health and vigorous usefulness depends. How important, then, to cure the first invasion of disease by a timely application of the right remedy! That remedy for disease of any of the pulmonary organs is, DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP, "which, in more than ten thousand instances has warded off and cured those diseases which, if left to themselves, in many cases, would have become incurable diseases of the lungs. DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP effects its purpose by strengthening nature in her efforts, by checking, dissolving, correcting or expelling morbid humors from the checked or clogged organism."

It dissolves and carries out of the system that starchy and viscid phlegm which obstructs the bronchia and air passages, and hinders the proper inspiration of pure air necessary to the proper fulfilment of physical life. It has even been known, after tubercles have been formed and developed in the substance of the lungs, to dissolve them and carry them out of the system. It is in this way alone that we account for the many extraordinary cures that DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP has made—cures made in this city, and among people who have given their only testimonials as to its efficacy. Not one of a few cases, but in nearly every house DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP has made cures of ordinary coughs and colds, and in some instances of lung diseases which had baffled at the use of every other remedy or kind of treatment. Do not neglect slight coughs and colds. They are the harbingers of fatal lesions or fatal developments of some serious lodgment in the system, which, if not carried out or silenced, will knaw away the vitals, or cough into shreds the delicate linings of the throat and lungs.

A Word to Convalescents.

Special care should be given to the diet, take light food and but little at a time. Great care should be taken not to take anything indigestible into the stomach.

Many persons, when recovering from fevers have craving appetites, and not unfrequently, through the over attentions of the nurse, mix together in the stomach the most incongruous articles of food; others, again, recovering from disease have no appetite at all, and need some gentle tonic and stimulant to assist the internal organs of the body to perform their regular functions. To such we say, procure Roback's Stomach Bitters, commence with a small quantity in sugar and water, and as the strength returns increase the dose, and continue them until the symptoms of debility shall have disappeared.

His recovery is doubtful. He was generally considered deranged, from his late troubles.

The Potomac river was closed by ice yesterday. Farther South, the James and Elizabeth rivers are also obstructed by ice. The weather at Fortress Monroe, yesterday, was intensely cold.

From the Treasurer's report it appears that the debt of North Carolina, incurred before the war, excluding interest to October 1866, was $13,000,000. The receipts for the fiscal year ending September 30th, 1866, $1,367,770; disbursements for the same period, $1,350,000; balance in the Treasury, about $123,000. The estimated expenses for next year are nearly $500,000. The Treasurer leaves it to the Legislature to provide for the payment of the interest on the public debt.

FROM NEW YORK.

The Great Storm of Thursday—Russia Impressing American Citizens—Where Stephens Is—A New York Official—The Taxes of the City for 1867.

NEW YORK, Dec. 28, 1866.

THE STORM OF THURSDAY.

This has been an anxious day for underwriters and ship owners.

At Harlem a row of six houses on Alexander avenue were unroofed, and a number of houses on Willis avenue were also unroofed, and one blown down; loss $30,000. The storm was very violent at Hudson and every avenue to the place was blockaded up by snow; four passenger cars were blown from the track, but without serious damage. No trains have arrived from the West. The drifts on the Boston roads are said to be enormous. On the Hudson River Railroad there are great embankments of snow, and several trains have been snowed under.

THE NEW YORK ASSOCIATED PRESS IN TROUBLE.

It is stated on creditable authority that the weekly bills of the five responsible members of the New York Associated Press, which, under the management of Mr. Craig, averaged from two hundred to two hundred and fifty dollars per week, have been increased to thirteen hundred dollars apiece, in consequence of the abandonment of the association by a large number of their former newspaper patrons all over the country. The President of the Association to-day announces that they will shortly make a direct appeal to merchants and speculators to come forward and assist them to carry their present heavy load, which is likely to increase to two thousand dollars per week.

IMPRESSING NATURALIZED AMERICAN CITIZENS INTO THE PRUSSIAN ARMY.

The Berlin correspondent of the World says: A dispatch has been received by the American minister from Secretary Seward, disapproving of the minister's conciliatory reference to Prussia's impressing naturalized Americans into its military service. The dispatch was read to the Governmental authorities at Berlin, but no action has been taken.

FROM MEMPHIS.

The Coroner of the City Murdered—Death of the Chief of Hood's Staff—Relief for the People of Vicksburg.

MEMPHIS, December 28.—Frank Erickson, coroner of this city, was shot and killed by Joseph Barton at Somerville, yesterday. The difficulty originated during the war, and the parties met for the first time.

Major Jerome Wilson, formerly Adjutant of General Hood's staff, died of cholera on Wednesday.

The citizens of Jackson, Mississippi, have contributed four hundred dollars to the sufferers by the Vicksburg conflagration. Contributions for this purpose have been called for by the press here.

The Storm at Albany.

ALBANY, December 28.—The gale continues to-day. Snow drifts are forming on the roads. The storm is said to be the severest in twenty years. Twenty inches of snow have fallen. The Central train, due yesterday afternoon, ran into a drift west of Albany, and could not get out during the night. No other trains got there but were obliged to stop. The snow was higher than the locomotive. This morning the passengers were released and brought to the city nearly frozen.

No trains have been sent out on any of the roads since last night, and none have reached here from any quarter. The weather is very cold.

GEN. SHERMAN'S OPINION OF THE MEXICAN LIBERALS.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28, 1866.

RECIPROCITY WITH FRANCE.

The President has formally announced by proclamation that in accordance with orders of the Emperor of the French, all vessels belonging to the United States, after the first of January, will be admitted to the ports of France and its dependencies by payment of the same duties to which French vessels are subjected.

The President further announces that in virtue of authority conferred by act of 1824 and 1828, he proclaims that so long as United States vessels are admitted to French ports on the terms aforesaid, French vessels entering United States ports shall be subject to no further duties on tonnage than those of the United States.

A REFRACTORY CONSUL.

President Johnson has revoked the exequatur granted to Gerhard Janssen, Consul of Oldenburg, to New York. It is said this is owing to Janssen having refused to appear in the Superior Court of New York in an action against him and others, pleading his Consular privilege.

NEW YEAR'S DAY AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

On January 1st, at eleven o'clock, the President will receive members of the Cabinet, Foreign Ministers, Senators and Representatives of Congress, Judges of the Supreme Court, &c. At 11½ A. M. the officers of the army and navy will be received. The reception of citizens will commence at 12 M.

THE LATE INDIAN MASSACRE.

The massacre by Indians of ninety-four United States soldiers near Fort Phil Kearney is confirmed. Col. H. B. Carrington, commandant at that post, telegraphs that they were attacked near the Fort by three thousand Indians, killing Lieutenant Colonel Fetterman, Captain F. H. Brown, Lieutenant Grammond, and ninety-one privates. The bodies when discovered were found horribly mutilated. It is not stated what companies they belonged to, but are supposed to be new recruits lately sent west.

STATEMENT OF PARDONS.

The Attorney General is preparing for presentation to Congress, on its reassembling, a partial report in response to the resolution inquiring as to pardons. This report is intended to include all persons pardoned under the first, third and eighth exceptions of the amnesty proclamation, which includes all who were military officers in the Confederate service above the rank of Colonel, those who had been graduates of West Point, and those who were members of the Federal Congress, at the time of secession; or those who were members of the Confederate Congress. This list will be found astonishingly small. The recommendations for pardons issued, will be found to comprise in almost every case, many of the leading members of the present Congress, and prominent Republican editors and politicians. The report will be so voluminous, that an increased clerical force will be required in the Attorney General's office, for its preparation.

GENERAL SHERMAN ON MEXICAN AFFAIRS.

The telegraphic dispatches from General Sherman, received at Washington, after his return from the Rio Grande to New Orleans, are very voluminous. General Sherman states that the Liberal organization is, in a great measure, a myth, and that the masses are irreclaimably given over to anarchy. It is also made to appear that in a free fight, with the Frenchman out of the way, Ortega would probably circumvent Juarez, and all the other factions. The report that Gen. Sherman and Ministee Campbell were met at a point on the coast by emissaries of Juarez, is untrue. While they came in contact with several parties who had acted formerly in close concert with the Republican Chief, not one of them was the bearer of official intelligence or greeting to our mission; nor could they depose as to what quarter of Mexico Juarez had taken up his precarious sojourn.

The administration is fully convinced that no eclat will grow out of its enterprise to discover the whereabouts of the Liberal Government in Mexico, and its disposition to advance even moral aid to the latter is very considerably shaken.

A DANGEROUS COUNTERFEIT.

The Treasury Department detectives have obtained possession of one of the most dangerous counterfeits in circulation. The note is a fine imitation of the fifty dollar legal tenders, with the vignette likeness of Alexander Hamilton, and is an exact counterpart of the genuine, except some slight errors in the engraving. The easiest way to detect the counterfeit is by observing the marginal line of figures running around the back of the note. In the lower left hand corner will be observed the figures "55," instead of "50" as in the genuine. The mark is quite plain and will insure the detection of the counterfeit. A large number of these notes are in circulation. Trusting to the general appearance of the note will not avail, as the most skillful have been deceived by it.

The Congressional Excursionists—Their Reception and Banquet—The Burning of the Steamer Fashion—The Races.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 28.—At eleven o'clock today the Committee of the Common Council, accompanied by several prominent citizens, tendered the hospitalities of the city to the Congressional excursionists and invited them to a public dinner, this evening, which has been accepted. One of the finest boats on the Mississippi river will leave with the party to-morrow morning, and steam up and down in front of the city. Between two and three o'clock they will receive visitors, and depart for Washington at seven o'clock.

Further details of the burning of the steamer Fashion, put down the loss of life at from fifty to sixty, the passenger list being mislaid, no accurate account of the lost and saved has been obtained. The fire caught from some sparks from the chimney.

The race to-day was attended by the excursionists. There were four entries, mile heats, best three in five, won by Malcom in three straight heats. Time: 1:50½; 1:50; 1:50¾.

FROM BOSTON.

Failure of the Soldiers' Monument—The Great Storm—Damage to Railroads—Fire in New Bedford—Woman Shooting Affair—Eating Houses on Sunday, &c.

BOSTON, December 28.—The common council last evening defeated the proposed appropriation of $60,000 for a soldiers' monument in this city.

The storm yesterday and last night was very severe. Considerable damage was done the shipping, and many buildings were unroofed. Jenkins' glass works, in South Boston, were flooded. The railroad tracks in some places were washed away, but will be immediately repaired.

A serious fire occurred in New Bedford this morning. It broke out in the iron foundry of Joseph G. Grinnell on Front street, which was entirely consumed. The foundry of Gifford & Allen, coopersmiths, was badly damaged, and also the shops of Poalon Potter, painter, and Joseph Clark, pump and block makers. A high wind prevailed at the time.

Alice Lane, who shot Harriet Parish, a colored domestic, at a house of ill fame, No. 4 Alden street, last week, was brought before the Municipal Court to-day. The Physicians stated that the injured girl cannot live. The case was continued and the prisoner was fully committed to jail.

State constable Jones has directed that all eating houses hereafter shall close at 7 o'clock Sunday evenings. Already, two prosecutions have been made for non-compliance. The matter excites much comment and ridicule.

The School Commissioners have advanced the salaries of teachers 10 to 15 per cent.

The semi-annual dividends payable in this city on or before January 1st, amount to almost nine millions, including two and a half millions interest on United States Securities, payable in gold at the Sub-Treasury. The total is $300,000 greater than in July.

Withdrawal of Militia from Lexington—Education of Colored Youth—Fire at St. Joe—General Sherman.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 28.—The Democrat's Jefferson City special says that a delegation of the influential citizens of Lexington have been in consultation with Governor Fletcher to-day, and that upon an assurance that the laws shall hereafter be enforced and order preserved, he has promised to withdraw all the militia but fifty men.

The Lincoln Institute of Jefferson City, for the education of colored youth, has received a donation of two thousand dollars from the Freemen's Bureau.

The wagon factory of Hebron & Schroer, at St. Joseph, and the dwelling adjoining were burned last night. Loss $12,000 to $15,000. Insured for $4,000.

General Seerman arrived last night.

The weather is moderating slightly, but the mercury is still several degrees below freezing point, and large quantities of ice are running in the river.

Donce, for St. Louis; Justice, for Hatchie river, and Rose Hambleton, for Pine Bluff. In port—St. Patrick, Clifton, De Vernon, Lina Norville, Guidon, Hyatt, and Comet.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Robbed on the Train.

A stranger appeared at Alderman Taylor's office yesterday morning and stated that he had been robbed. He declined to give his name, but stated that he was a machinist from Steubenville, and had left that city on Thursday for the purpose of obtaining work in Pittsburgh. When he entered the train he had in his pocket a wallet containing fifty-seven dollars. Before reaching this city he missed his pocket book and money, and all efforts to find it in the car failed. He said that he remembered that some time before he missed his money, he saw one of his fellow passengers in the car hand to another a pocket book, with the remark "you dropped this just now." The other man took the pocket book and pocketed it. The loser expressed the belief that the pocket book was the one of which he had been robbed. Officer Bell went with the stranger to the depot, and there discovered and arrested the person who received the pocket book. The book was found upon his person but no money was found in it. He was therefore discharged from custody. It is probable that the man who so thoughtfully gave him the book, kept the money himself.

An Important Question—The Tax on Manufactured Iron.

In the United States Circuit Court yesterday, before Judge M'Candless, the motion for a preliminary injunction in the case of Messrs Rese & Thorn vs. the United States Assessor and Collector of this District, came up for argument. This preliminary injunction was asked for to restrain the Assessor and Collector from levying and collecting a tax on boilers manufactured by the firm, to a greater amount than the increased value of the manufactured article, the complainants claiming that the tax provided under the revenue law had already been paid on the iron. The motion was made some time since, and by direction of the Court, considerable testimony in regard to the facts of the case has been taken. The argument was opened by J. H. Bailey, Esq., for the complainants, and he was followed by United States District Attorney Carnahan for the respondents. The conclusion of the arguments will be heard on Monday next, at which time John Barton, Esq., will appear for complainants, and Jas. I. Kuhn, Esq., for respondents.

The Union Skating Park.

The Union Skating Park, of Allegheny City, on the line of the Manchester Passenger Railway, never was in better condition, and is thronged day and night with thousands of the lovers of the graceful skating exercise. The Park has been declared by eastern gentlemen, who should be posted on the subject, to be far ahead of anything of the kind in America. The arrangements are upon the most liberal scale, while the area of the ice covered pond is sufficiently large to prevent colliding and disagreeable crowding. Every night the clear, crystal ice is illumined from all sides by reflectors prepared expressly for the purpose, and stationed at regular intervals about the Park. The mirror like surface of the ice is left unbroken and smooth by flooding it each night with water, which forms a new layer. There will at all times be found a large number of gentlemanly officers in attendance, and nothing which can be done to secure the pleasure and enjoyment of visitors will be left undone. Children, as well as persons of older growth, will be properly cared for and attended to. There is excellent skating to-day at the Park, and every body should pay it a visit.

A Man Run Over by a Cart and Killed.

Yesterday morning a carter named O'Neill, residing near Jones & Laughlin's furnace, some distance above Soho run, was so badly injured by being run over by his own horse and cart, that death ensued in a very brief time after the accident. O'Neill had been to the city, and was on his return home, with a load of groceries in his cart. While descending the road leading from Pennsylvania Avenue to the Braddock's Field Plank road, the horse started rapidly down the hill. O'Neill who was walking, endeavored to check the animal, but slipped on the ice covering the road, and fell to the ground. The wheel of the cart passed over his abdomen, inflicting internal injuries, and causing the blood to gush from his nose and mouth. He was removed to the toll house, where medical aid was immediately summoned, but death ensued in a few minutes. The deceased was unmarried, and had been in this country about eighteen months. Coroner Clawson held an inquest, and a verdict of accidental death was rendered.

Important to Purchasers of Sewing Machines.

The attention of those desiring to purchase sewing machines for family use is asked to the following extracts from testimony taken under oath in a recent case pending before the United States Patent Office. The witnesses are of the highest respectability and position, and their opinions being derived from actual experience with, and knowledge of, the leading sewing machine in the market, are entitled to special consideration. The testimony from which these extracts are made embraces the opinions and experience of over one hundred witnesses, including heads of families, dress and cloak makers, manufacturers, and experts, principally of New York city and vicinty; and thousands might be called from all parts of the country, whose experience and convictions accord with those quoted.

If the following does not establish the superiority of the Grover & Baker machine for domestic use, then human testimony is inadequate to establish any proposition.

MRS. ALICE B. WHIPPLE.

Wife of the Rev. Mr. Whipple, Secretary of the American Missionary Association, testifies as follows:

Q.—Are you acquainted with sewing machines for family use, how long have you been so acquainted, and the nature and extent of your acquaintance with them?

A.—Yes; for the last nine or ten years I have examined various machines, and have seen them in use, and have for the last nine years used a machine in my own family.

Q.—As the result of your observation and experience, what machine do you think best as a general family instrument?

A.—The Grover & Baker, decidedly.

Q.—State the reasons, such of them as occur to you, for this opinion?

A.—I think the stitch is a stronger stitch than that of any other machine I have seen used, and it seems to me much more simple in its management than other machines. One great advantage is the ease with which the seam is ripped when necessary to do so, and I think the work, by an inexperienced person, on a Grover & Baker machine, is better than the work of such person on any other machine. It requires more skill to work other machines than the Grover & Baker.

MRS. JANE M'CREADY, WIFE OF DR. M'CREADY, 13 East 23d street, New York, says: "I have used for nine years a Grover & Baker machine, and upon it I have done all kinds of family sewing for the house, for my children and husband, besides a great deal of fancy work, as braiding, quilting, and embroidering. During all that time my machine has never needed repair, except when I had the tension altered, and it is as good now as it was the day I bought it. * * * I am acquainted with the work of all the principal machines, including Wheeler & Wilson's, Finkle & Lyon's, Wilcox & Gibbs', Ladd & Webster's, the Florence machines, and Sloat machines, besides a number of the $10 ones, and I prefer the Grover & Baker to them all, because I consider the stitch more elastic. I have work now in the house which was done nine years ago, which is still good, and I have never found any of my friends who have used the other machines able to say the same thing."

MRS. CAROLINE L. PEARSON, 52 COURT STREET Brooklyn, a lady who has had twelve years' practical acquaintance with the leading Sewing Machines, asserts that the Grover & Baker Machine is the best, and gives the following reasons:

Q.—Among your acquaintences who have used the Grover & Baker, and also other machines, state whether or not the Grover & Baker is, in all cases known to you, preferred for family use

A.—I suppose I have compared my experience with over five hundred ladies, and I never, except in one instance, found that they preferred other machines to the Grover & Baker, when they have tried both machines.

Q.—What are the reasons for this preference? Please state them fully and at large.

A.—The principal reason, or one of the main reasons, is for the elasticity and durability of the stitches, the regularity and beauty of the stitch on all fabrics alike. There are some machines which sew very nicely on certain kinds of work that do not sew well on others. I never found the fabric yet that the Grover & Baker Machines will not sew in the most beautiful manner. I think it does not take more than half the time to adapt or adjust the Grover & Baker Machine to different kinds of work and fabrics than it does on any other kind of machine. I think the stitch is invaluable to families, in furnishing a cheap and rapid mode of beautiful ornamentation.

MRS. N. M. FRYFE, OF 89 WEST 18TH STREET, New York, states that "the Grover & Baker Machines are easier to learn on, the work is more durable, the tucking is more elastic, they are easier to run, and cause a great saving of time and money. I can sew very thin goods or very thick goods. I have embroidered one thickness of linen, and from that I changed to embroidering slippers without changing the machine at all."

MR. A. P. BEATLIE, MACHINIST, 1230 CASS STREET, Philadelphia, states that he prefers the Grover & Baker Machine to all others, for either domestic use or manufacturing purposes, on account of its simplicity of construction, ease of management, beauty and elasticity of stitch.

Choice Dry Goods and Where to Purchase.

Saturday is usually a shopping day among the ladies, and we would beg to direct their attention to the well known dry goods house of Bates & Bell, No. 21 Fifth street, where will be found an elegant and complete assortment of dress goods, silks, velvets, shawls, blankets, cloaks, flannels, plaids, &c., &c. We know whereof we speak when we say that in no other house west of the mountains can be found a better stock of general dry goods than at Bates & Bell's. Both members of the firm are careful and judicious buyers, and having long had personal experience in providing for the Pittsburgh trade, they select their goods so that all classes can readily select from their stock. The silk goods are truly superb, and are of such pattern and texture as will commend themselves to the purchaser. All sorts of materials for ladies dresses, cloaks and undergarments will be found in the different departments, while their selection of shawls, from the richest to the most humble, will be found equal to any in the fashionable houses of the East. A large force of active and obliging salesmen will be found at all times in attendance, anxious to wait upon any and all who favor this house with their patronage. We commend Messrs. Bates & Bell to our lady readers, knowing them to be fair dealing and honorable gentlemen. Their prices are as reasonable as those commanded by any house of similar character in the city. Remember the place; No. 21 Fifth street.

Pianos and Organs.

Persons unacquainted with the art of Piano or Organ making sufficient to know what constitutes a first-class instrument are at a loss to choose from among the various manufacturers. It is admitted by those who are competent to judge that the great difference in the Piano lies in the "scale" or lungs of the instrument. The principal points of a good piano are a defective harmonizing of the tones throughout the entire scale.

The latest, and in the opinion of the highest musical ability of the country, the best scales yet made, are to be found in the celebrated Bradbury, New York, and Schomacker & Co., Philadelphia Pianos; in volume, purity and great brilliancy of tone they are unequalled. These instruments are with full iron frame, patent solid bridge, with or without agraffe treble, at prices from $375 to $1,000.

The Este & Co., "Cottage Organ," for power, purity and pipe like quality of tone, is unexcelled. A two stop instrument of this make a short time since took the first premium over a twelve stop organ of one of the popular makers of the day and other competitors. It is only necessary to hear them to be convinced of their superiority over all other reed instruments now before the public. Prices from $100 to $400 according to style and finish.

Barr, Knake and Buettler, St. Clair street, are the sole agents for these superior instruments, and are just receiving a new lot. So popular are they becoming, that the factories find it difficult to supply promptly their agents with what they require.

New Way to Collect a Dollar.

Jane Lindsay and Mrs. McMillan live on Pennsylvania avenue, and are, or were friends. So intimate were their relations that, as Mrs. McMillan alleges, Miss Lindsay felt at liberty to borrow a dollar from her and forget all about returning it. Last week Miss Lindsay wished to go away for a short time, and in order that her trunk might be safe she took it to Mrs. McMillan's and left it. The trunk and its contents were valued at $20. On Saturday Miss Lindsay called for her trunk, but as she was removing it, Mrs. McMillan, thinking it would be a good chance to secure her dollar, set down upon the trunk and refused to budge until the money was paid over, to the uttermost farthing. The money was not forthcoming and neither was the trunk. Miss Lindsay went next to Alderman Morrow's and preferred a charge of larceny as bailee against Mrs. McMillan. The latter was arrested and met her prosecutor yesterday at the Alderman's office. There an adjustment was arrived at. Miss L. withdrew the suit; Mrs. McMillan paid the costs. The trunk, which had been brought to the office, was delivered up and carried away by a male friend of the owner, and Miss Lindsay herself also departed without having paid that dollar.

Terrible Affray in Butler County—Probable Double Murder.

On Christmas eve, says the Butler Herald, a party was given at the house of Mr. Oliver, in Portersville, this county, and a couple of friends of Mr. Oliver came there in the evening whom he invited to stay. It appears that during the evening some altercation took place, and the result was that a young man named Cunningham was killed instantly, and his companion, Tibballs, is supposed to be mortally wounded. Mr. Oliver, in trying to separate the parties, had his skull fractured. Two or three others were also injured. We understand the matter is to be investigated. What is most singular is, no one seems to know who the murderer of young Cunningham is.

The Great Fifth Street Book Store.

Reader, did it ever strike you that your opinions of a friend are formed as much from the mementos of the absent one in your possession, as from any words he may have spoken in your presence, or conduct he may have manifested? These inanimate objects stand as representatives of the donor, giving tone and color to the remembrance, and insensibly shaping our ideas of him. The question as to what presents are suitable thus becomes more and more important. Your friend may be compelled to acknowledge that you are generous, in return for some expensive but inappropriate gift, but at the same time may regard you as a generous fool.

Among the few articles which are always appropriate, and can never fail to give pleasure, are the works of the great authors, of all ages. They are companions in the absence of the giver, breathing pure and ennobling thoughts, which, by association, we invariably come to regard as his thoughts, and commune with them as with him.

A book, in order to create a favorable impression at first, must be comely, i. e., handsomely bound. Thanks to art, books are now bound in such magnificent style that no other article can surpass them in external beauty; and to such perfection has the art of illustrating them been carried, that within the elegant covers a whole Art Gallery, comprising the masterpieces of the most famous artists, may be contained.

Particularly is this the case with English publications, of which, owing to the fact that they cost little more at present than American publications, Henry Miner, Nos. 71 and 73 Fifth street, has purchased a large quantity. At his immense depot, rivalling in the extent and elegance of its salesrooms, and the magnificence of the selections many of the celebrated houses of New York and Boston, those rare and curiously fashioned volumes are to be seen. Conspicuous among them, all elegantly illustrated, are A Round of Days; Poems and Pictures; Pictures, grave and gay; favorite English Poems of Modern Times; Moore's Irish Melodies, and Cary's translation of that immortal poem, Dante's Inferno, illustrated by Gustave Dore in so masterly a manner that the beholder lingers over the fascinating and yet awful representations of hell until he almost fancies himself there.

In addition to his complete stock of books, Mr. Miner has a great number of those exquisite gems, known as Cannon's Metallic Frames, containing beautiful designs of crosses, wreaths and baskets, wrought in genuine flowers, moss, holly and the delicate shells of ocean. Of these there are six sizes. Mr. Miner has made a specialty of them, and his stock surpasses any in the city.

We can mention but a few of the beauties of this mammoth establishment. One can spend charmed hours in wandering through it, and he who fails to visit this important feature of our city has missed a rare pleasure.

The Prize Numbers, 55 and 57.

The magnificent stock of boots, shoes and gaiters, which is now to be found at T. A. McClelland's mammoth salesrooms, Nos. 55 and 57 Fifth street, will command itself to all economical purchasers. It embraces all the latest and most fashionable styles of boots, shoes, gaiters, slippers, &c., &c., which are of the best manufacture, and are warranted to give satisfaction. The prices are below the old ones which prevailed in the palmy days of 1860, before the cruel war drove every thing in the mercantile market up to the most extravagant figures. Mr. McClelland possesses few equals as a buyer of goods, and knows just the quality to suit, and when and where to purchase. Attending all the heavy auction and sheriff sales of the metropolitan cities, he selects his stock with great judgment and care, and buys at the best advantage. His benefits he shares with his patrons, and great bargains may at all times be expected and obtained at his extensive salesrooms. In addition to the large stock of pedal coverings to be found at 55 and 57 Fifth street, an excellent and well assorted line of dry goods will also be found. Piece goods of all kinds of materials for ladies', misses' or children's wear will be cut to suit purchasers. Woolen goods of every description are kept on hand, together with an elegant assortment of muffs, victorines, cuffs, collars, and every article in the fur line. Gentlemen in search of clothing can go no where else to procure better made or neater fitting garments. In short, every thing in the way of boots, shoes, clothing, dry goods, woolen goods, house furnishing articles, carpets, furs, &c., can be purchased at extremely cheap prices at the commodious Masonic Hall salesrooms, 55 and 57 Fifth street.

A Good Place to Fix.

Robinson street at the crossing of the old canal below Craig street, Allegheny, is a most execrable place to remain in its present condition, but it is one of the best places to repair we ever saw. Along the course of the canal a deep excavation has been made, for the purpose of constructing a sewer. Over this deep and wide cut, no teams can cross, and no means of crossing for foot passengers exists, save a slender, narrow and shaky scaffolding, stretched across without a railing on either side of it. In broad day light, when it is not slippery, a perfectly sober person may accomplish the crossing in safety, but if two persons chance to meet on the boards, the problem as to which shall tumble off, becomes one of considerable interest, and for any one to attempt the passage in the night time, or when the walk is slippery, is simply to fly in the face of Providence. The work on the sewer at this place might have been concluded weeks ago. The prospect is now, judging from the progress that has been made, and the force of hands now employed, that Robinson street will be passable about the first of January, 1868. Meantime the powers that be thereabouts, might at least afford the security of a railing along the shaky scaffold on which people have to cross.

Highway Robbery by Young America

On Wednesday afternoon, as a young son of Mr. William J. King, druggist, at the corner of Federal and Lacock streets, Allegheny, was skating on a pond near Manchester, he was set upon by three boys named Gallaher, Lynch and Brickle, who threw him down, after which young Gallahgher proceeded to take off the skates from the prostrate boy's feet, and ran away with them. Information was made before Mayor Morrison, by Mr. King, and young Brickle was arrested by officer Campbell, of the Allegheny police. The youthful prisoner made a full statement of the affair, and the officer proceeded to the residence of young Gallagher, in the Second ward, Allegheny. There he arrested the boy and found the skates. The boy Lynch was also arrested, and yesterday the three young reprobates—neither of them over eleven years of age—had a hearing. Lynch and Brickle were discharged, and young Gallaher was held for a further hearing.

Rescued from Freezing.

William Jones, a peddler belonging to Rochester, came to Allegheny on Thursday morning on a business trip. During the day he must have found business exceedingly brisk, for he managed with the proceeds of that or some other day's sales, to get gloriously tipsy. So drunk did he become, that at a late hour in the evening he was unable to get to his proper lodging place and deposited his weary frame on the sidewalk on Federal street near the Diamond. A very short nap in that exposed locality, with the mercury hunting for zero, would have undoubtedly proved a very long nap, but the drunken sleeper was discovered in time by officer Sprague, of the night watch, and locked up. Yesterday morning he was fined $2 and released.

A Decoy.—The Philadelphia police recently arrested a scoundrel at Hazelton, in this State, for decoying young girls to the city and enticing them to houses of ill fame. He made his money that way. Capital punishment for such offenses should never have been abolished.

Get the Best—They Always Give Satisfaction.

Every week, Dr. Quincy A. Scott is called upon to insert Artificial Teeth in cases where other dentists have tried, been paid, and failed, and in every case his work gives entire satisfaction. He is quite an artist in his line of business, and has merely to examine a case to know how to articulate the teeth so that they will present a handsome and natural appearance, and will masticate the food thoroughly. His prices are lower than those of any dentist in the city, and he will guarantee his work to be superior. So it would be better for any of our readers who are in want of teeth, to call upon the Dr. in the first place, and thereby save their time and money. We would also assure those persons who are suffering with diseased and unsightly teeth that they can have them extracted without any pain whatever, by calling upon Dr. Scott. He has extracted for over ten thousand persons within the last seven years, and among this large number there is not one case in which his process has proved injurious. On the contrary, he can refer to numbers of his patients who claim to have been benefited in renewed health. He extracts numbers daily by the new "Rhigolene or Vapor" process, and gives pure Laughing Gas to those who desire it, without charge. He makes no charge for extracting when artificial teeth are ordered, and gives a full set on Vulcanite, with beautiful gums, for eight dollars. Remember his number, 276 Penn street third door above Hand.

PITTSBURGH AND CONNELLSVILLE RAILROAD.

We pursue this subject once more, for it is our wish, while we treat it, to set the question fully and fairly before the members of the Legislature and the people of the State. It is a question which involves not only material interests of vast amount, but moral considerations of the gravest moment. Never was there a question presented to any people in which uprightness and expediency, honesty and good policy, more perfectly harmonized than in this, as we trust we have already shown, and shall make still more apparent before we are done with it. We are making war upon no man, upon no corporation, upon no section, upon no interest. All we plead for is that a wrong shall be rectified, that an injurious statute shall be repealed, and that some hundreds of thousands of our own citizens shall be allowed to improve and enjoy the advantages which a bounteous Providence has given them, and thus have permission to pursue their own happiness by enhancing their own prosperity and wealth.

The Pennsylvania Central road has been of incalculable benefit to our State, and not to our State only, but to the entire country. For bold and well-directed enterprise that company has not its equal in America. Its influence is felt from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and that influence and that power carry with them a vast preponderance of benefits and blessings. As a nation, our enlargement, our wealth, our activity and our civilization have all been promoted immensely by the far-reaching enterprise of that magnificent corporation. With some of its movements we have heretofore felt constrained to take exception; but it gives us far more pleasure to point to its good works, its grand achievements, than to war with what we regard as errors in its policy and administration. But while the people of the State may regard with mingled pride and gratitude the great things which that corporation has done for the State, they ought not to forget what the State has done for it. Never was a company more favored; and to this favor, as much as to its own energy and sagacity, does it owe its present commanding position among the railroad corporations of the United States. We grant cordially that the State has been well compensated for these favors. Now what we ask is, that other corporations, equally deserving, equally able, and ready, and willing to confer benefits upon the State, by enlarging its business, developing its resources, increasing its population, and augmenting the wealth, comfort and social happiness of its people, shall be equally favored. There is room for all and need for all. We ask therefore that the people of the southwestern counties of the State shall be as well treated as those of its longitudinal centre have been.

To secure this impartiality in the distribution of Governmental favors a Free Railroad Law will probably be placed upon the statute book at the approaching session of the Legislature. That will be well; but that will not do justice to the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Company, or restore those franchises of which it was wrongfully deprived by the repealing act of April, 1864. Any lawyer, or any man of ordinary mental penetration, can see at a glance how inadequate a remedy that anticipated law would be in the case under consideration. If the franchises in question were not forfeited—and it has been abundantly shown by solemn legal investigation, verdict and decree that they were not—then they still inhere in that corporation as a positive, tangible, valuable right, and at this moment they are only held in abeyance by the act of April, 1864, the repeal of which is now asked, and which, it were sad and humiliating to doubt, will be promptly granted by the incoming Legislature; for its members have more light than their predecessors had.

In order to show that the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad Company is disposed to deal fairly and generously with its embryo competitor, the Connellsville and Southern Pennsylvania Company, we have been favored with, and subjoin, an abstract, or the substance, of a bill which will be offered at the approaching session of the Legislature, to repeal the repealing act of April, 1864:

An Act to repeal an act of the General Assembly of the State of Pennsylvania, which became a Law on the 18th day of August, 1864, entitled, "An Act relative to the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad Company."

SECTION 1. Be it enacted, &c., That the act of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, which was passed on the 29th day of April, A. D. 1864, and which became a law on the 18th day of August, A. D. 1864, entitled, "An act relative to the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad Company," be, and the [illegible] declared to be of no force or effect. [illegible] the said Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad Company are hereby [illegible] after the passage of this act, [illegible] within three [illegible] Pennsylvania Railway [illegible] a road according to [illegible] or other [illegible] to the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad Company.

Nothing can be fairer than this; and we do hope that both these important enterprises will be prosecuted to completion at an early day; and that they will make such arrangements one with another as shall be for their mutual advantage, and be of incalculable benefit to that singularly rich but long neglected region through which they pass, and to the State at large. In our next article we shall speak more particularly of the resources of that section traversed by the line of the Pittsburgh and Connellsville road.

In MARYLAND a State law provides that black people, convicted of minor offenses, shall be sold into slavery. The Civil Rights Bill, after it became a law, seemed to interfere with this luxury, and the State Judges decided it to be unconstitutional. When the old habit is stronger than the new rule, in any community, the Judges are apt to court local popularity by accommodating matters in this way. Of course, the constitutionality of the law will ultimately be decided in the Supreme Court; but, meanwhile, the selling of convicted blacks goes on.

In South Carolina Gen. Sickles issued an order forbidding, among other things, the whipping and enslavement of blacks, in punishment for crime. President Johnson made a special order [illegible] the operation of [illegible].

If these [illegible] the abolition of slavery, by [illegible] and Constitutional Amendment, will become [illegible].

Gen. Jno. A. Logan proposes making Chicago his permanent residence.

NEBRASKA AND COLORADO.

Both these territories have framed constitutions, organized State governments as far as they can do so, chosen Senators and Representatives in Congress, and are knocking for admission. That they both will be admitted at the present session of Congress there is every probability. The democracy in and out of Congress are raising a loud hue and cry in opposition, on the ground that they have not sufficient population, alleging that Nebraska has but 50,000, and Colorado 30,000. This is not true. The population of both, which is increasing with great rapidity, is now much nearer double these figures; and if the number of voters was taken as the basis, either of them would outnumber Florida far away. These territories will soon be entitled to more than one representative each, while it is questionable whether Florida will ever have enough of population to entitle it to one member. Yet these grumblers are very anxious to take that non-progressive rebel State back again with all its disloyalty. It is not so much the numbers as the loyalty of Nebraska and Colorado that these worthies are quarreling with.

EDITORIAL BREVITIES.

A STRANGE and sad meeting between a brother and sister recently took place at the tombs, in Detroit. Ten years ago at Toronto, Canada, a young girl named Sarah Lytle, of a first family there, was seduced by an actor named Thompson, and after being abandoned by him, plunged into a life of infamy and shame. Her father and mother strove hard to redeem her but all to no avail, and with their task unaccomplished, they died broken-hearted. The only remaining member of the family, a brother, rather than live in the community which witnessed the degradation of his sister, fled to other parts, and became a school teacher. The sister some years ago took up her residence in Detroit, where she led a terrible life of shame and ignominy, and became one of the foulest characters in that city. On Christmas day, she was arrested on a charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct and was imprisoned in the tombs. There her brother, after a lapse of ten years, met her but did not at once recognize her. Horrified at the blasphemous language she used, he approached her and remonstrated with her to no avail for the more he talked worse language flowed from her tongue. He suddenly exclaimed "my sister," and fell to the floor insensible. The heart of the infamous woman was touched and she wept bitterly over her brother. Upon reviving he refused to converse with her and left her in the prison cell, whereupon she again burst out in the wildest rage and passion, cursing and berating her relative in the most approved style.

THE Cincinnati Commercial tells of a party of rogues who procured at Lebanon, Ohio, an insurance upon the life of a ficticius person, and then after reporting his death from cholera, buried the supposed deceased in a cemetery. As the death was so mysterious, some persons suspected foul play, and had the coffin disinterred, when, lo, and behold! it was filled with broom-corn seed. The parties have been placed under arrest.

THE prisoners in the Maryland Penitentiary had a sumptuous dinner spread before them on Christmas day, the contributions of their friends and relatives outside.

A RESPECTABLE young man named Smith, a resident of Detroit, committed suicide on Wednesday last by blowing out his brains.

WILLIAM DUFFY, Esq., of Philadelphia, for two years past postmaster to the State Senate, is announced a candidate for State Treasurer.

HORACE M. MORTEN, a Philadelphia newspaper local editor, died of consumption in that city on Christmas.

ON the 16th proximo, the Pennsylvania Fruit Growers assemble in convention at Harrisburg.

Hon. Thaddeus Stevens.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—In the GAZETTE of Thursday morning, I find the following:

> "When Mr. John W. Forney withdrew from the Senatorial contest, and cast the weight of his influence into the scale for Mr. Stevens, large results were anticipated from the movement, which have not been realized. This failure of effect does not derogate from the power Mr. Forney ordinarily exerts by reason alike of his uncommon abilities and his magnetic temperament; much less from the high position occupied by Mr. Stevens. The age and infirmities of the latter gentleman afford the only reasons why there is no popular enthusiasm in his behalf."

I deem it but just to my colleague with whom I have served eight years in Congress, to say, that, I regret deeply that you have fallen into an error that has been extensively circulated by interested parties.

So far from being infirm, Mr. Stevens is physically better than he has been during those eight years, and is now one of the most active and vigilant members of Congress, as the daily record of its proceedings shows.

He does more hard work, I believe, than any other member, and is not only acknowledged by the members of the House, but by the people of the State of Pennsylvania, of the Union and of foreign nations, as the great American Commoner.

Pennsylvania can do herself infinite honor by electing him to the Senate, and I trust she will. The enthusiasm in his favor is that which is due to talent, ability and integrity, and not to any outside or corrupt appliances.

Yours &c.,
J. K. MOORHEAD.

IMMEDIATE RELIEF.—A CURE AT LAST.—METCALFE'S GREAT RHEUMATIC REMEDY, for Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Gout, Nervous Headaches, and Pains in the Head and Face. This preparation is entirely new, having been in use only a few months; yet, in no single instance has it been known to fail. The first dose (forty drops) invariably relieves the pain, and, thrice repeated, often effects a cure. It not only relieves the most excruciating agony; but, when the patient has been confined to bed for months, a few doses will frequently carry off the attack in two or three days; and in many cases of extreme torture, relief has been obtained in a few hours. In all other cases the sufferer has been restored to health in a short space of time. The great charm of METCALFE'S RHEUMATIC REMEDY is the small quantity necessary to cure the most violent attacks of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Gout, Nervous Headaches, and all similar complaints. In this respect it is very different to the other numerous remedies which are constantly being brought before the public; the great benefit of which lies in the poor sufferer's swallowing three or four quarts of some nauseous liquid, before the slightest relief is procured. Remember that a few drops of this wonderful medicine acts like magic, and instantly alleviates the most unbearable pain.

Tell your afflicted friends to try it and be convinced. Price one dollar per bottle. Sole Agent for Pittsburgh,

THE GREAT MEDICAL ANNUAL—Hostetter's United States Almanac for 1867, for distribution, GRATIS, throughout the United States and all civilized countries of the Western Hemisphere, will be published about the first of January, and all who wish to understand the true philosophy of health should read and ponder the valuable suggestions it contains. In addition to an admirable medical treatise on the causes, prevention and cure of a great variety of diseases, it embraces a large amount of information interesting to the merchant, the mechanic, the miner, the farmer, and professional man; and the calculations have been made for such meridians and latitudes as are most suitable for a correct and comprehensive NATIONAL CALENDAR.

The nature, uses, and extraordinary sanitary effects of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, the tonic and alterative of more than half the Christian world are fully set forth in its pages, which are also interspersed with valuable recipes, humorous anecdotes, and other instructive and amusing reading matter, original and selected. Among the Annuals to appear with the opening of the year, this will be one of the most useful, and MAY BE HAD FOR THE ASKING. Send for copies to the Central Manufactory, at Pittsburgh, Pa., or to the nearest agent for HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. The BITTERS are sold in every city, town and village of the United States.

American (Waltham) Watches.

Dealers in Watches from all parts of the country are reminded that the undersigned keep a full assortment of Waltham Watches, in gold and silver cases, constantly on hand. Large reductions in the prices of movements and cases have recently been made, and the Internal Revenue Tax is no longer charged to customers.

The good repute borne far and near by the manufacturer of the Waltham Company makes it needless for the agents to urge their claims to general patronage, or to do more than caution the public against spurious and inferior Watches with which the markets are flooded. Every Waltham Watch, of whatever class, is warranted by special certificate, which should in all cases be demanded.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

Who is Caroline Richings?

The Cincinnati Enquirer thus answers this question concerning this most charming singer who recently took our city captive:

"A correspondent asks us this question. Really there is no such person. At least that is not the correct name of the accomplished actress who bears it. It is a sad story of a deserted wife and mother. In the year 1835 there came to this country from England, a professional man, a singer, named Reynoldson. He landed in New York with his wife and two children, the elder an interesting girl two years old. The mother was a fair-haired, blue-eyed young woman, a perfect specimen of an Anglo-Saxon beauty, amiable in disposition and lady-like in manners. The father—Reynoldson—who was a superior tenor singer, soon obtained a [illegible] of star engagement at the Park Theatre, New York. There he became acquainted with a young actress, with whom he shortly afterward ran off to New Orleans. He left his wife and unprotected children penniless and at the mercy of a boarding-house keeper of the feminine gender. Those who have tested this sort of people, have doubtless discovered that they are not largely endowed with the "bowels of compassion." It may be that in their turn they experience the same lack of charity in their butcher, baker and groceryman.

"Generally speaking, it is not a charitable world. The deserted wife soon discovered this when she could no longer pay her board. It was at this period that the writer became acquainted with her, by boarding in the same house. Her sad story was known at the theatre, and Peter Richings, the then stage manager, called upon her. He became interested in the little girl, and finally made the mother a proposition. That proposition was that if she would give him the child—his own marriage bed was fruitless—he would pay her debts and furnish her with means to recross the Atlantic with her infant. The forsaken woman had relatives there who would take care of her. She accepted the offer. That little girl is the Caroline Richings of whom our correspondent inquires. "Old Peter" grew to love her as his own, and has bestowed upon her a liberal education. He has had his reward.

"What became of Mrs. Reynoldson after she went to Europe we never learned. The scoundrel father, as might be surmised, abandoned the woman with whom he had eloped. She repented, and returned to the path of virtue—and the stage. Old Peter has so long regarded Caroline as his daughter that he almost believed her to be so. Who would destroy the hallucination? It is a romance of real life."

Distress in Schuylkill County.

The Pottsville Standard draws the following gloomy picture: Not for many years past has there been a season of such general distress as the present. We hear on every side stories of terrible suffering among the poor people of this county. In one neighborhood alone several families went to the Alms House in one week. One man who resides but a few miles from Pottsville, says: "I have had men to go on their knees before me this winter, and beg for work or food to keep their families from starving." The Grand Jury in their late report recommended the enlargement of the Alms House, and with reason, for, although some persons try to hush up the voice of truth in regard to this matter, there is no doubt that the Alms House will be more crowded than ever this winter; and, unless something is done soon for their relief, hundreds of poor people must suffer, perhaps die, from actual starvation, within a few miles of the borough of Pottsville. The distress is not only in the mining districts, but everywhere, in every branch of business. Foundries, shops and rolling mills are working on three-quarters time or stopping work entirely, and collieries are becoming bankrupt one after another. It is true that the working men have been receiving high wages; but consider the enormous price of all the necessaries of life, and the enormous taxes, the greater part of which, comparatively, must come from the pocket of the poor man.

Shooting Affray.

A time honored custom was being observed at Donovan's Saloon, on Main street Wheeling Christmas Eve. A number of young gentlemen were engaged in the exciting business of raffling for turkeys—a practice, we may remark in passing, countenanced by a great many of the better classes at church fairs and festivals. One of the party, George Bresock by name, had good luck, and was fast transferring to his own possession all the turkeys put up. Another of the party, John Farley, had bad luck. He was losing money and not winning turkeys. About this time Bresock discovered that one of his birds had taken flight. He accused Farley of having furnished the wings. Farley denied the charge, and left the saloon. George Bresock and his brother followed the retreating Farley. They overtook him near Schaffer's Saloon, on Market street. They demanded the turkey. Farley said he could whip both of them. He struck at the larger of the two, and missed. He was more successful with George, the smaller, and gave him a staggering blow. George pulled out a pistol and shot Farley. The ball entered near the left arm pit, passing upwards to the top of the shoulder, and lodging beneath the skin. The wound is severe, but not dangerous.

A Young Lady Deer Hunter.

The American Standard, of Uniontown, has the following: On Friday, December 21st, Miss Eliza Sproull, of Stewart township, as she was passing the house of Col. Miles Hann saw a deer, closely pursued by some dogs making its way towards her. She dismounted from her horse and running up the hillside, came to the rescue just as the exhausted animal, deeming, perhaps, that escape was hopeless, had turned at bay to sell his life as dear as possible. The dogs driven away, it was no easy task to capture the little infuriate, and no doubt she would have lost her prize had she not received the timely assistance of Mrs. Hann. They succeeded jointly, however, in effecting its capture, and the deer may now be seen in Hann's stable. It is a fat fawn, of eight months, and will weigh eighty pounds. We have often heard of the exploits of "Old Miley," the "deer slayer," how he perforated the deer with his "Pun'kin Finger," but he is growing old and useless and the women of the mountains are getting ahead of him.

A Bold Robbery.

The Harrisburg Telegraph records a bold robbery near that city last Monday. A certain Peter Bogard, a drover, was enticed to the suburbs, along the river bank, when he was set upon by four ruffians. One of them tied his arms, another bandaged his mouth, and a third drew a revolver and threatened to shoot Bogard if he would make the least resistance. He was then robbed of his clothing, consisting of overcoat, pants, shirts, neck tie, &c., together with a carpet bag and $90 in money. In fact he was completely stripped and left without any clothing. Four young men were subsequently arrested on suspicion of having committed the robbery, but Bogard failed to recognize any of them, and they proved that they were elsewhere at the time the outrage was committed. They were consequently discharged by the Mayor.

A Sad Enterprise.

The Wheeling Intelligencer has the following: The pity of our citizens was, or should have been, excited, Christmas day, by the spectacle of two women, and seven children, wandering through the streets. They were all in rags, and looked as though they had not had a full meal for a month. Night coming on, they were provided with comfortable quarters in the Police Court room, where they staid until yesterday morning.

The party had walked from Columbus, Ohio, and were on their way to New Jersey, which State they hoped to reach by the same slow and toilsome method of travelling.

More Infernal Machinery.—Howard Gillingham, the master mechanic of the railroad shops at Youngstown, Ohio, recently discharged a boy from his service. The father of the lad determined to have revenge, and preparing a box with a sliding lid, and filling it with powder and lucifer matches, addressed it to the master mechanic. Suspicioning that the box was not all right, the recipient submerged it in water previous to opening, and of course destroyed the trap which was laid for him. William Howarth, the wretch who prepared and caused to be delivered the infernal machine, was arrested, and abundant proofs were obtained to ensure his conviction.

Attempted Bank Robbery.—An unsuccessful attempt was made last week, to rob the First National Bank of Carbondale. The burglars got into the bank and set to work to drill the vault doors, with the implements of their trade, but they evidently became alarmed at the approach of morning and fled, leaving their tools in the bank.

GENERAL NEWS.

—Rev. Joseph Dougherty, a Catholic priest from California, died on Christmas, at the Perry House, in Cairo. He has been there two weeks, and seemed to be suffering from great mental trouble, approaching to insanity, but preached in the Catholic Church Sabbath before last. Three days ago he purchased a quart of brandy and drank it all in two hours. His friends then watched him more closely, but he eluded their vigilance, and jumped out of a three-story window of the hotel on Sabbath morning, dislocating his hip. This was set in place, and he was able to walk on Monday evening. During the night delirium set in, and death ensued. He was only twenty-seven years of age, and reported to be of extraordinary talent and education, occupying a high reputation in the church. He had never been known to use liquor.

—Advices from the East report that the work on the Suez canal is actively progressing. An average depth of from 7 to 9 feet of water has been obtained along the salt water portion of the canal, whilst the temporary fresh water canal has an average depth of seven feet. The present labor is directed to widening and deepening the canal; and for about two-thirds of the distance the entire width of about two hundred feet has been excavated. The real difficulties of this canal are now beginning; the dredging in soft and constantly dissolving sand to secure a proper depth for a ship canal being found an almost endless job. The dauntless energy and perseverance which have carried this work to its present advanced stage will, however, in time overcome even this trouble.

—Amid the long concourse of criminal trials of the Fenian prisoners in Canada, which has lasted for more than two months, there have been occasional acquittals. It is now stated that the prisoners who have been tried as American citizens and acquitted because the Canadians could not get sufficient evidence to convict them, have prepared a petition to forward to Secretary Seward, asking that he make a claim for damages against the British Government for unjustly depriving them of their liberty since they were captured in June last.

—George Fisher was mortally wounded by a panther at Shaftsbury, Vt., a few days since, which he had shot, but not seriously. The animal lacerated his side to shreds, tore his left arm from its socket, and injured him so that he lived but a few hours.

—Miss Josephine Smith committed suicide Christmas night, at Cairo, by taking morphine, and died next morning. Cause, disappointed love. She was highly respected, but in moderate circumstances.

EARLY TELEGRAMS.

TELEGRAPHIC SUMMARY.

Governor McCormick, of Arizona, has induced the military authorities in California to assign a portion of the 14th Infantry to protect the people of Arizona. The cavalry will protect the mail route. General Crittenden will accompany Governor McCormick from San Francisco to Arizona, and probably assume command of the forces.

There were violent storms in all the Atlantic coast and Lake cities on Thursday, and a heavy fall of snow in New York, Ohio, and the Western States. The trains on the lake shore and New York roads were all detained, many of the roads being blockaded by snow drifts. A number of vessels, it is believed, have been wrecked on the Atlantic coast. The steamboat Commodore, of the New York and Stonington line, went ashore six miles from Greenpoint, Long Island. She is a total wreck. The passengers and crew were all saved, and also a portion of her freight and the baggage of passengers.

It is stated that President Roberts forwarded thirty-five overcoats for the jailed Fenians in Toronto, but Col. Lynch refused to receive them, and said it was a catch-penny to draw funds to the Fenian organization.

Bumgardner, convicted of the murder of Eubank, made an attempt to escape from the Marietta (Ohio) jail last night. He filed his chains loose, and, with the ball attached, struck and severely injured Peter Baker, deputy sheriff. He was shot in the face and shoulder by another deputy, and then secured.

A fire at Milwaukee, yesterday morning, destroyed the Eagle Iron Works and shops adjoining, the repair shops of the Prairie du Chien Railroad, a restaurant and a lumber yard. Loss, $50,000; insured for $25,000.

The New York Herald's Ireland correspondent writing on the 13th, says: "The revolution excitement is still at fever heat. It is thought the rising will occur simultaneously in the counties of Cork, Waterford, Limerick and Kilkenny."

On Thursday a box was stolen from the banking house of C. P. Bayard, Chestnut street, Philadelphia, containing a quarter of a million in government bonds and securities. Yesterday, the box was found laying in the street, Government securities gone, but all other stocks left in the box untouched.

The young man Patterson, who attempted to kill his sister, in a Philadelphia house of ill-fame, is attached to the navy, and was at home on a furlough. He visited his sister several times, to induce her to leave the house, but she steadily refused, when he adopted the terrible expedient of cutting short her dissolute career by killing her. The girl will recover from her wounds. Patterson is in prison, and expresses great satisfaction that he failed in killing his sister.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A CARD TO INVALIDS.
A Clergyman, while residing in South America as a missionary, discovered a safe and simple remedy for the Cure of Nervous Weakness, Early Decay, Diseases of the Urinary and Seminal Organs, and the whole train of disorders brought on by baneful and vicious habits. Great numbers have been already cured by this noble remedy. Prompted by a desire to benefit the afflicted and unfortunate, I will send the recipe for preparing and using this medicine, in a sealed envelope, to any one who needs it, FREE OF CHARGE. Please enclose a postpaid envelope, addressed to yourself.

GLAD NEWS FOR THE UNFORTUNATE.
BELL'S SPECIFIC REMEDIES
Are warranted in all cases, for the speedy and permanent cure of all diseases arising from sexual excesses or YOUTHFUL INDISCRETION, Seminal Loss, Nighty Emissions and Sensual Dreams, Genital, Physical and Nervous Debility, Impotence, Gleet, Sexual Diseases, &c., &c. NO CHANGE OF DIET IS NECESSARY. They can be used without detection, and never fail to effect a cure, if used according to instructions.
BELL'S SPECIFIC PILLS,
Price one dollar per box, or six boxes for five dollars; also, large boxes, containing four small. Price three dollars.
From four to six boxes are generally required to cure ordinary cases of Seminal Weakness and Emissions, though benefit is derived from using a single box.
In Chronic Cases, and particularly when Impotence or Genital Debility with Nervous Prostration has affected the system,
BELL'S TONIC PILLS
Are recommended as the most efficacious rejuvinating and invigorating remedy in the world.
A package, price five dollars, will last a month, and is generally sufficient.
In extreme cases of Debility and Impotence,
Bell's External Remedy,
Price two dollars, sufficient for a month, can be used to good advantage.
It gives strength to the organs, and with the Pills will restore them to their normal condition.
CAUTION.—The above Remedies have now been before the public many years, and their great success in the alleviation of human misery, has excited the cupidity of several parties, who use the name "Specific Pills," copy my labels, circulars and advertisements, sometimes word for word, and put up worthless compounds that disappoint the just expectations of the purchaser.
If you cannot purchase Bell's Specific Remedies of your Druggist, take no other, but send the money direct to
DR. JAMES BRYAN,
Consulting Physician,
No. 819 Broadway, New York.
And you will receive them, by return of mail, post paid, and free from observation.

TO LADIES.—If you require a reliable remedy to restore you, and remove irregularities or obstructions, WHY NOT USE THE BEST. Every lady knows the slightest irregularity of nature is likely to bring on Headache, Giddiness, Low Spirits, Fainting, Hysterics, &c.; then the bloom of health fades, the appetite fails, and other symptoms more distressing commence, as Weakness, Spinal Complaint, the Whites, Prolapsus, &c., &c. A NEVER-FAILING REMEDY will be found in DR. HARVEY'S FEMALE PILLS. The experience of 30 years has proved they have no equal for removing obstructions and irregularities, no matter from what cause they arise. They are safe and sure in every case. Upwards of 50,000 boxes are sold annually, and no complaint of their efficacy is ever heard, for they accomplish what they are represented to do. Sold in boxes containing sixty pills. Price one dollar.
DR. HARVEY'S GOLDEN PILLS is a remedy four degrees stronger than the above, and intended for special cases of long standing. Price five dollars per box.
If you cannot purchase the Pills at your Druggist, they will be sent by mail, post paid, secure from observation, on receipt of the money, by Dr. JAMES BRYAN, Consulting Physician, No. 819 Broadway, New York.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE.—A Farm of about 58 acres in Union Township, Allegheny county, Pa., situate about four miles from the city on the Washington Pike. The improvements are a large two story Brick Dwelling House with 12 rooms, a two-story Spring House, a Carriage House, a large Lumber Room, a No. 1 Frame Bank Barn, with stabling sufficient for 50 head of cattle. There is a fine Young Orchard, comprising about 12 acres, stocked with the best varieties of fruit trees. It is all underlaid with coal. The land is in a high state of cultivation, well watered, fences good, and would suit admirably for dairy or gardening purposes.
Also, 17⅛ acres adjoining the above, with a good Frame House, Carriage House, good Spring House and other out-buildings; with a good Orchard in fine bearing condition. This piece is also all underlaid with coal.
Also, 12 acres adjoining the above, unimproved, for sale low. This piece is also all underlaid with coal.
The above three pieces of property lie between the Little Saw Mill Run and Steubenville Railroads, and the coal can be reached easily from either road. The coal alone is worth all that is asked for the entire property.
Also Farm of 173 acres, situate in St. Clair township, Westmoreland county, Pa., immediately on the line of the Penna. Railroad. The improvements are a two-story Frame House with five rooms and good cellar, a Frame Bank Barn, 40x60 feet, and other out-buildings. There is on the place a good Young Apple Orchard: 120 acres cleared, balance in good timber; fencing generally good, well watered; underlaid with coal and limestone; convenient to churches, mills, schools and blacksmith shops, together with the personal property such as stock, implements, grain in the ground, &c. Possession given immediately.
Also Farm of 53 acres, situated in Chartiers township, Allegheny county, Pa., about 3½ miles from the city, near the line of the Steubenville R. R., and within one-half mile of a station; 30 acres of the best of creek bottom land, and in a high state of cultivation; 23 acres of wood land and pasture. The fencing is generally good. The soil is No. 1, and well adapted for gardening. The attention of those wishing to embark in the business will call at once and secure a good bargain, as this is a rare chance.
Also, Farm of 84 acres, situate in Elizabeth township, Allegheny county, Pa., on the Monongahela river, about one mile from the Borough of Elizabeth. The soil is of the best quality. The improvements are a farm house with six rooms, a good barn and other out buildings; fencing good; about 50 acres of coal. Churches, schools and mills very convenient. Possession immediately.
Also, the best Farm in Elizabeth township, containing about 90 acres, lying on the Monongahela river immediately below Lock No. 3, on which is erected a large two-story brick dwelling, one log and one frame bank barn, corn crib, wagon shed, brick spring house, granary, work shop, &c.; about 30 acres of the above is first quality river bottom; the balance being limestone land, and underlaid with coal, and about 20 acres of limestone. There are two orchards of apple trees, in good bearing condition; peach pear, plum trees and grape vines, &c. The land is well adapted for gardening purposes, being a short distance from the thriving borough of Elizabeth, creating a market at home for all the products. The property will be sold cheap and on reasonable terms.
Also, A Farm of 96 acres, situated in Elizabeth township, Allegheny county, Pa., about one mile from Lock No. 2, on Monongahela river. Improvements are one frame house, with five rooms, barn, spring house and other outbuildings. The land is of the best quality. The above will be sold at very low figures.

FOR SALE—400 Acres of Coal Land, lying immediately upon the Ohio River, 20 miles below Gallapolis, and 185 miles above Cincinnati. On the above tract is a four foot vein of Coal, which, for general purposes, is not surpassed. It is entirely different from the Southern Ohio Coal; contains but little sulphur, forges and cokes well, and for making steam cannot be excelled. The location being about midway from Pomeroy and Hanging Rock, must make it valuable for coaling boats. There is a water front of ¾ of a mile, with a good landing at all stages of the river. An entrance has been run in the hill about 300 feet, track finished to river, together with the necessary fixtures for mining and delivering coal afloat. On said tract is first-class double Portable Circular Saw Mill together with a Portable Grist Mill, all in good running order, and plenty of the very best oak, ash and poplar timber. Would sell one-half interest if desired, to a party with experience and capital for working same. JOHN D. BAILEY,

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Special Meeting of the Allegheny Councils—[illegible] New Streets for the Third Ward.

A special meeting of the City Councils of Allegheny City, was held last evening in their chambers. The purpose for which the meeting was called was to take action on the proposed opening of two streets in the Third ward.

SELECT BRANCH.

Members present: Messrs. Drum, Hall, Huckenstein, Irwin, Myler, Patterson, A. D. Smith, William Smith, and Thomas, with President McBrier in the chair.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved.

The President stated that the meeting had been called at the instance of the President of the Common Council, and that the purpose for which it was called, was to take action concerning the opening of two new streets in the Third ward, on the side of the hill.

An additional report of the viewers appointed to assess damages, resulting from the opening of the streets in the Third ward, was read, representing that the views submitted in their former report, had been very much modified by inspecting the plan for the new streets, submitted since the report. Their first report was a mistake, and they wished to retract it.

Mr. Hall moved that the Council reconsider their former action on the report. A somewhat protracted discussion followed, and the motion was finally passed.

Mr. Myler requested to be excused from acting with the Street Committee. His request was granted.

Mr. Myler then moved that the matter be referred to a special committee.

Mr. Hall thought the report should be set aside on the showing of the viewers, they having acknowledged that they had acted without proper data. Let the matter come up [illegible].

Mr. Thomas urged decidedly that in justice to Mr. Huckenstein, who had promoted the passage of the ordinance authorizing the opening of the streets, and who had been called a liar this evening by men in the chamber, the question should be referred to a committee for full consideration.

Mr. Huckenstein briefly explained his motives.

Mr. Myler explained that his motive in suggesting the special committee was that a full and free investigation might be made of the conflicting statements and reports that had been made by different parties. Speaking plainly, there was a lie out somewhere, and it was desirable that the Council should find out just where it was.

The President considered that the business of the committee would be to ascertain whether the proposed streets were necessary.

Mr. Myler stated that two of the Viewers, as he learned, had never been sworn.

The question on the committee was called and decided in the affirmative.

The President appointed Messrs. Thomas and Wm. Smith on the committee.

The Common Council concurred, and appointed Messrs. Megraw, Riddle and Ingham.

On motion of Mr. Myler the rules were suspended that other business might come before the meeting.

Mr. Myler then submitted the following resolution:

Resolved, That a committee of five, two from the Select and three from the Common Councils, be appointed to take into consideration a revision of the salaries of the city officers, and that said committee report at the next meeting of Councils. Adopted. Common Council non-concurred.

Mr. Irwin moved the appointment of a committee of conference to consider the matter. The President appointed Messrs. Irwin and Hall on the committee. Common Council concurred, and appointed Messrs. Miller, Ingham and Riddle on the committee.

Mr. W. Smith submitted an ordinance providing that the Western Pennsylvania Railroad Company be required to establish, and adhere to, just and reasonable rules as to the rate of speed of trains on their road within the city, and as to the obstruction of streets by their trains. Common Council non-concurred, and referred it back to the Ordinance Committee, with instructions to have it so amended that flag-men shall be stationed at every street crossing, and that trains shall not be allowed to stand on crossings. Select Council receded from their action and concurred with Common Council. On motion of Mr. Hall, referred to the City Solicitor.

The following communication from the City Solicitor was read, received and filed:

To the Select and Common Councils of the City of Allegheny:—GENTLEMEN—In answer to the question of the right of the Western Pennsylvania Railroad Company to run three tracks across Anderson street, submitted to me by your Honorable Bodies, I would say that I think that Company has not such right. I would not say that the city could certainly enforce the removal of the third track, but I believe her position such that she would be warranted in carrying the matter into the Courts.

M. A. WOODWARD,
City Solicitor.

Common Council concurred.

On motion of Mr. Myler, the action of the Common Council on Stoves was concurred in.

On motion of Mr. Hall, the action of Common Council respecting the report of the Wharf Committee was concurred in.

On motion of Mr. Myler, the report of the Market Committee, submitted on the 13th inst., and accepted by the Common Council, was referred to the new Council.

Common Council non-concurred and referred the report back to the Committee of Markets, with instructions to report at the next meeting.

The action of the Common Council respecting the report of the Gas Committee was concurred in, provided that four lamps were allowed for each ward.

On motion of Mr. Myler, the consideration of the repeal of the ordinance prohibiting the erection of frame structures, was taken up.

Mr. Myler considered that the object proposed to be gained by the repeal of the ordinance had not been attained. The poor had not been benefitted. Instead of cheap dwellings being erected, only machine shops, stables and rookeries had been erected. These had been put up by parties who were abundantly able to erect good buildings, so that only the wealthy, who did not need benefitting, had been benefitted by the repeal.

Mr. Thomas spoke, advocating the immediate re-enacting of the frame ordinance.

Mr. Drum was of opinion that three frame dwellings to one brick dwelling, had been erected in the city during the year. The enemies of the bill made it include other buildings than dwellings in order to kill it.

Mr. Hall denied this.

Mr. Myler was inclined to confess that all who voted for the repeal of the frame law had found themselves mistaken. So far from the repeal effecting a reduction of rents, rents were now higher than ever before. He would advocate the re-enactment of the frame ordinance.

Mr. Patterson said that he was one of the first movers of the repeal. He thought the bill permitting the erection of frame dwellings was a success. So far as dwellings are concerned, he was still in favor of it.

Mr. Myler proposed that the prohibition of the erection of frame structures date from the 1st of January instead of the 1st of March, as proposed in the bill which has been read the first time, as a frame shed was to be erected near him.

Mr. Thomas was in favor of the immediate re-enactment of the frame law.

Mr. Hall was in favor of waiting till the year was up, before the re-enactment was effected, and not break a pledge in order to accommodate individuals. The gentleman who favored the repeal saw danger now coming to himself, and was in favor of escaping it immediately.

Mr. Myler explained.

Mr. Drum would emphatically oppose Mr. Myler's amendment, as it would be legislating for an individual.

Mr. Thomas held that a repeal must take effect at once.

The President explained that this was action to re-enact the original law.

The question on Mr. Thomas' amendment, providing that the re-enactment be immediate, was called and put. It was decided in the affirmative.

On motion of Mr. Myler the rules were suspended and the bill re-enacting the frame ordinance passed to a third reading and was finally passed.

On motion adjourned.

COMMON BRANCH.

Present—Messrs. Brown, English, Faulhaber, [illegible], Ingham, Megraw, Miller, McNeil, Mc[illegible], Riddle and President Benney.

On motion of Mr. Ingham, the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting was dispensed with.

The President stated that the meeting was called to take action on the opening of the [illegible] in the Third ward.

Mr. [illegible] moved to reconsider the action of last meeting. [illegible]

Mr. [illegible] moved to non-concur in the action of Select [illegible] on the opening of said streets. [illegible]

On motion of Mr. [illegible], the rules were suspended in order to take up other business.

The Committee on Gas submitted their report, and offered the following resolutions for the action of Council:

Resolved, That the Committee on Gas be and they are hereby authorized and instructed to have public gas lamps placed in the following places: One on the corner of Carroll and Montgomery avenue, one on the corner of Jackson and Webster streets, one on the corner of Ohio Avenue and Fremont street, and one on Ohio Avenue, near [illegible] grocery store.

Resolved, That the Committee on Gas be and they are hereby instructed to have two gas lamps erected on Lacock street, one on the corner of Lacock and Corry streets, and the other in a central position between Corry and [illegible] street.

The Committee also advised the erection of gas lamps in other portions of the city.

On motion, the report was accepted and the resolutions adopted. S. C. non-concurred and amended that four lamps be placed in each ward. C. C. receded and concurred with S. C.

The report of the Committee on Wharfs and Landings was read. The Committee reported that they had entered into a contract with [illegible] & Co., for the construction of a wharf from [illegible] street to Gray's alley, and that the work had already been commenced and would be pushed forward with all possible dispatch. The report was accepted and ordered to be filed.

The following resolution was offered at the last meeting of Council, but Select Council [illegible]:

Resolved, That the Committee on City Property be and they are hereby instructed to have the stoves now used in the council chamber [illegible] and others better calculated to [illegible].

C. C. adhered, and appointed Messrs. Riddle, McNeil and Brown as a Committee of Conference.

Mr. McNeil offered the following resolution, which, after an animated discussion, was [illegible]: [illegible] the Committee on Finance be and they are hereby instructed to fix the salaries of the several city officers for the ensuing year, at their next meeting.

On motion, adjourned [illegible] the second Wednesday of January.

Committed [illegible] Penitentiary.—[illegible] Sheriff yesterday removed [illegible] prisoners from the county jail to the Western Penitentiary, [illegible] two years and six months; [illegible] one year and six months; [illegible] one year and [illegible]; Charles [illegible], one year and [illegible] months; John [illegible], one year and six months.

Republican Nominations.

This afternoon the Union Republicans of the Second ward will hold their primary meeting for the purpose of placing in nomination ward officers and members of Council. For the latter office the more prominent candidates are Messrs. D. O'Neill, Thomas Steel and Edward House. The two former gentlemen have served the city as members of the Council for several terms, and have ever been recognized as able, fearless and creditable representatives, and both will be nominated by overwhelming votes. Mr. House is well known in the ward as a faithful adherent to the party, and his nomination may be regarded as a certainty.

The Eighth ward will hold an election to nominate ward officers and Council members this afternoon. Our friend J. N. Killen, Esq., a strong and ardent Republican, and a member of the present Council, is a candidate for re-nomination. He is eminently qualified for the office, and as he is a tower of strength in this ward, we have no doubt but that he will easily go through.

In the Seventh ward the regular Republican nominees are as follows: Select Council—J. M'Cune. Common Council—Col. Patchel, Capt. Wm. F. Jones. School Directors—Max. Moorhead, Albert Moore. Judge of Election—Judge Beatty. Return Inspector—Henry Lytle. Assessor—John Crawford. Assistant Assessors—Benjamin Bell, Louis Roll. Constable—David Elder. All of these gentlemen are well known, and their election can be confidently relied upon, although there is an independent ticket in the field.

In the Ninth ward the primary elections were held yesterday with the following result: Judge of Elections—Samuel E. Herron, Esq. Inspector—Samuel Mitchell. Return Inspector—John Paisley. Select Council—David Crawford. Common Council—David McClelland, Thomas W. Welsh, William R. Ford. Assessor—James Irwin. Assistant Assessors James M Snyder, Samuel McKee. School Directors—John Welsh, Robert M. Reed. Constable—Albert Evans.

Mr Crawford will succeed Mr. Normine in the Select Council. He possesses all the requisite ability to make an able and invaluable representative. The candidates for the Common Council, Messrs. McClelland, Ford and Welsh, are all members of that body now and have given the utmost satisfaction to their immediate constituents and the city at large. Their election in the noble old Ninth ward, which always does her full duty in rolling up heavy Republican majorities, cannot be a matter of doubt.

In the Fifth ward the following nominations were made yesterday afternoon at the primary election:

Select Council—Thomas C. Dickson. Common Council—R. J. McGowan, Paul Siebert, Thomas S. Sloan, Charles Beck, James Hemphill. School Directors—F. C. Negley, William Crawford, Jr. Assessor—Joseph Irwin. Assistant Assessor—Archibal McClelland, Sam'l. C. Lewis. Constable—David Richards. Judge of Elections, 2d precinct—John H. McElroy. Return Inspector—Frank Ralston. Inspector—David G. Adams. Judge of Elections, 1st precinct—Joseph C. Dichson. Return Inspector—Alexander Kepple. Inspector—Robert Graham.

It will be perceived that the only members of Council renominated are Messrs. Thomas Dickson and Paul Seibert. Both these gentlemen served the city faithfully in the past term of Councils. The ticket nominated is a very excellent one, embracing among the candidates the best citizens of the ward.

Complimentary Testimonial to Manager Hess.

C. D. HESS, ESQ.—Sir: The undersigned citizens of Pittsburgh, regretting your contemplated departure from the city, take this occasion of expressing their hearty appreciation of your admirably directed managerial connection with the Opera House. Personal considerations aside, we regret your departure from the city, from the fact that you have in a brief time accomplished such desirable results in elevating the standard of the drama in our midst, and making of the Theatre what it should be: a place of intellectual and refined amusement and entertainment. This has been made apparent to every citizen at all interested in the progress of the drama, and in this view the severance of the relations you have held with our public is a matter of very general remark and regret. This expression at your departure, therefore, is no idle formality, but is founded on a hearty appreciation of your experienced, liberal and enlightened management. As a mark of our cordial approbation of your services in serving us, we beg leave to tender you a complimentary benefit, on such evening as you may designate; and, in doing so, we believe we are giving expression to the unanimous sentiment of all well-wishers of the drama of Pittsburgh.

NEW OPERA HOUSE,
PITTSBURGH, Dec. 28, 1866.

GENTLEMEN:—Your highly complimentary note has just been handed me, and finds me utterly at a loss for words that will give expression to the pride and gratitude of which it is productive. Proud that during my short career as Director of this establishment I have succeeded in giving satisfaction to a most discriminating community, and grateful that you should hold me and my humble efforts sufficiently important for [illegible] consideration such as you propose, I will cheerfully accept your tendered "complimentary," as it will enable me to meet face to face the warm-hearted friends who have done so much to encourage me, and render my sojourn in Pittsburgh pleasant, and are so kindly disposed as to desire to make my last remembrances of my career here pleasurable in the extreme.

I will designate Wednesday evening next, January 2d, as the time for the proposed benefit.

I am, gentlemen, very respectfully, your obedient servant,
C. D. HESS.

To Messrs. Brigham, Hamilton, Singerly, O'Niell, Shirls, Barr, and others.

OPERA HOUSE.—Mrs. Bowers' engagement at the Opera House is a splendid success. Her acting is graceful, powerful and natural. As Pauline and Julia she achieved splendid successes at the commencement of her engagement. Her rendition of Lady Audley, however, was her crowning achievement. We have seldom seen acting more intensely powerful and more thoroughly artistic, than Mrs. Bowers' performance of this character. During the two nights this piece held the boards the house was crowded with appreciative audiences. The play was admirably put upon the stage also, and the fire scene was one of the most effective pieces of scenic effect our city has enjoyed. Last evening Mrs. Bowers appeared as Leah. On Monday evening the famous "Long Strike" will be given. At the matinee this afternoon "Lady Audley."

THEATRE.—Miss Kate Fisher has been drawing immense houses during the week. Almost every night the Theatre has been crowded to its utmost capacity. "Mazeppa" has held the boards and has been a great success. Miss Fisher and her horse, "Wonder," are the elements of which sensational success is composed. The house last night was smaller than on any night heretofore, the excellent sleighing and skating interfering somewhat. To-night the "Cataract of the Ganges" will be given. Miss Fisher remains another week.

Charged With Receiving Stolen Goods.

J. K. Lanahan came before Alderman Strain yesterday and made information, charging Jacob Byerly with receiving stolen goods. It is alleged that on the morning of the 20th of November the deponent, who is proprietor of the Lanahan House in the Diamond, gave into the possession of a departing guest a carpet-bag which he supposed to belong to him. Subsequently it was ascertained that the baggage did not belong to the person to whom it had been given, and every effort was made to recover it. The man who had received it, however, was unknown, and his whereabouts or the whereabouts of the carpet-bag could not be ascertained. A day or two ago Mr. Lanahan learned that the carpet sack had been purchased from the dishonest guest, and accordingly he made the information stated, alleging that the purchaser knew when he bought the sack that it was stolen. The accused was arrested and held for a hearing. He is a hard working man and will probably be discharged. The stolen baggage is not very valuable, as with its contents it is worth only seven dollars.

A Duel in an Alley.

An effectual method of settling a mutual misunderstanding occurred on Saturday evening in the Seventh ward. John Kony, a member of the Relief Company, and a man named Daniel Sarver, had something of an altercation in a house on Pennsylvania Avenue, and agreed to settle the matter quietly in an alley hard by. Up the alley they went, and commenced the adjustment. More speedily and effectually to settle the affair, Sarver, as is alleged, drew a knife and struck Kony a blow with it, by which a long and ugly gash was inflicted on Kony's forehead, reaching around from temple to temple. The difficulty was settled, for the time at least. The injured man was conveyed into the Relief House, where he remained until morning, when he was conveyed to his home in Pitt township. No information has been made against Sarver, and accordingly he has not been arrested.

Accident at the [illegible].—An accident, which came near resulting seriously, occurred last evening at the Theatre. In the "bare back scene," when Miss Fisher had been bound to her horse, and he had commenced ascending the acclivity, one of the planks broke and horse and rider fell to the stage. Miss Fisher by a powerful effort freed herself from the lashings that bound her and sprang up just in time to save herself from being rolled upon by the frightened horse. Fortunately she was but slightly injured. The horse regained his feet instantly and indulged in some extemporaneous movements that created considerable consternation and caused the ringing down of the curtain.

A Newspaper Man Settled.—Our warm and genial friend George H. Kahn, Esq., of the Dispatch, has gone and got married. Nor did he forget his friends in the hour of happiness, as the ever welcome wine and cake made its appearance in our sanctum. We wish George and his young bride all the happiness imaginable, and may neither ever experience one care or sorrow while floating adown life's current together. George has set a noble example to his bachelor acquaintances which we trust will be speedily followed.

A Lucky Man!—There is at least one lucky man in Allegheny, John Marion, living in the Fourth ward of that city, and engaged as a journeyman plasterer, received a dispatch from Washington on Thursday night, informing him that his ticket in the National Soldiers and Sailors' Fair, in Washington, had drawn the ten thousand dollar greenback prize, and that the money was subject to his order. We hardly think that Mr. Marion is open to new proposals for jobs of plastering.

Declines to be a Candidate.—William N. Ogden, Esq., the present member of the Common Council from the Second ward, has withdrawn from the present contest and declines to be a candidate for re-election. His many friends will regret this exceedingly, for few men are more popular with those who know him than Mr. Ogden. His performance of the duties entrusted to him has been strict and conscientious, and he has accomplished whatever has fallen to him as a Councilman ably, faithfully and well. We hope that his successor will be his equal.

Alarms of Fire.—Last evening, at about seven o'clock, an alarm of fire sounded from box No. 43, at the corner of Pennsylvania avenue and Elm street. The occasion of the alarm was the burning of a chimney in a dwelling occupied by Mr. Donahul, near Young's cabinet shop.

While the engines were returning from this locality another alarm sounded from box No. 61, corner of Penn and Harrison streets. This alarm also was occasioned by the burning of a chimney on Penn street. No damage resulted.

Arrested for a Bit of Christmas Fun.—Yesterday John Minich, a resident of the Third ward, Allegheny, was before Alderman Donaldson on a charge of assault and battery, preferred by Victor Schwind, shoemaker, St. Clair street. Minich is charged with being one of a party of three who committed an assault on the prosecutor in the yard attached to his own house, on Christmas night. Minich, in default of three hundred dollars bail was committed for a further hearing on Monday next.

—A Washington letter to the Chicago Republican contains the following speculations upon the action of Congress upon the currency:

There is no probability that Congress will do much on this subject. The action of last session is considered a compromise, and members who have no particular views of their own are not willing to disturb it. Mr. McCulloch is permitted to withdraw $4,000,000 a month. There are $380,000,000 out now, so that this will retire $48,000,000 a year, and thus take about seven years to withdraw the legal tenders at present rate. Now the party in favor of withdrawing faster is quite powerful. In view of this fact conservative men are willing to rest the matter where it is. There is, however, a formidable third party springing up, which insist that the Government should have the profits of the circulating medium, and who therefor insist on the withdrawal of bank bills instead of legal tenders, and who wish to wind up all the national banks gradually, and substitute government bills for their issue. This makes a triangular fight about the currency. It having been reported that there was an extensive lobby in Congress, supported by the banks, to fight McCulloch's policy under the compromise bill, many of the supporters of the latter have voted with the anti-bank party, thereby making it apparently stronger than it really is. In this triangular fight it is very safe to say that neither Mr. McCulloch nor the banks will get an increase of power at the present session. The volume of the currency will remain as it is, excepting the $4,000,000 per month contraction.

—The improvements which, it is stated, are about to be made to the national banking act by Congress will obviate some of the most serious objections to the system. Among the reforms to be recommended by the committee the most important is that forbidding the payment of interest on bank reserve. It is well known that as a matter of fact, there will be no reserve if the balance belonging to a distant institution is placed at interest in the redeeming bank, because it must be loaned out at once, and is thus a mere credit, with no actual accumulation of money or its representative. If the redeeming agents are forbidden to pay interest on deposits, they will have less motive to make such use of the money, and the reserve will be available, as it was intended to be, in time of need.

The House Committee have also had in mind to amend the act so as to forbid the use of compound interest notes as part of the reserve. The principle upon which this is based is sufficiently obvious, and undoubtedly sound. It is easy to see that such notes, with the present accumulation of interest upon them, form no real reserve for an emergency, any more than a bank credit would, since no institution would be willing to pay them out at par, and they would answer little better purpose for currency in a financial crisis than a five-twenty bond. As so much of the present nominal reserve is composed of these notes, it may be wiser to introduce a gradual change, and limit the proportion to be allowed now, forbidding their use altogether after a certain future date.—Phila. Press.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
FRIDAY, December 28, 1866.

There are really but very few new features in the produce markets worthy of special notice. Dullness continues to prevail in most departments of trade, and as the business public seem to have become pretty well convinced that values must still further depreciate, there is an almost universal disposition manifested to restrict operations as much as possible. Buyers, to use a common phrase, are buying "from hand to mouth," while sellers, although anxious, find it very difficult and tedious work to reduce their stocks, and in many cases, important concessions are made to gain this point.

GRAIN—Wheat is firm but unchanged; sale of 2 cars Winter at $2,85—No. 1 Spring is quoted steady at $2,60. Barley is dull and irregular; sale of 1 car medium Spring at 95. Oats continue to arrive pretty freely, and while the market is dull, holders do not seem disposed to make concessions in order to effect sales; we quote at 48 to 50, on track, and 53 to 55 for small lots in store. Corn in better supply and a shade easier; we now quote at 75 to 80 on track, and 85 to 90 in store. Rye is selling at $1,20 to $1,30.

FLOUR—The market is rather firmer, though there is no improvement to note in the demand. We continue to quote at $11 to 11,50 for low grade Spring Wheat; $12 to 12,25 for good to choice; $13 to $14 for Winter Wheat; and $15 to $17 for fancy brands. Rye Flour is selling at $6 to $6¼. Buckwheat is dull and drooping; may be quoted at $4 to $4¼, in bbls, and $4¼ to $4½, in sacks.

GROCERIES—The material decline in gold has brought Coffee down considerably, and Sugars also, both raw and refined, are weak and drooping. The first named article has declined from from 3 to 5c per pound within the past week, and "the end is not yet." Teas are reported steady at former quotations.

MILLFEED—Sale of 1 car Shorts at $1,15. Middlings may be quoted at $1,85 to $1,90, and Seconds at $1,35 to $1 40. Stocks light.

BUTTER—The demand apparently is falling off somewhat, and, if anything, the arrivals are increasing. Prime Roll may be quoted at 30 to 33 cents—the latter figure for small packages.

EGGS—Dull, with a supply considerably in excess of the demand, and we quote nominally at 30 to 32, for fresh packed.

HAY—Continues to arrive very freely, and the supply is now somewhat in excess of the demand; we have sales reported on track at $[illegible] to $[illegible], for fair to prime baled.

APPLES—In steady demand but unchanged—we have regular sales reported at $3 to $4,00 per bbl, as to quality.

POTATOES—Continue dull, the supply being in excess of the demand; small sales of prime Peach Blows, in store, at 90c to 95c per bushel.

PITTSBURGH IRON AND BLOOM MARKET—WEEKLY REVIEW.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
FRIDAY, December 28, 1866.

Dullness and stagnation continue to be the prominent characteristics of the iron business, and, what is worse than all, there are no indications at present of any immediate improvement. It seems almost certain now that the mills will all suspend operations within the next two or three weeks, in consequence of the fact that there is no demand for manufactured iron, and there is no special inducement to let stocks accumulate, with gold and almost everything depreciating in value. This being the case, there is little or no inquiry for metal, either for present or future delivery, and the market is dull and weak, with a drooping tendency, and, as the supply is considerably in excess of the demand concessions would no doubt be made in order to affect sales. The transactions during the week were remarkably light, as will be seen by the following:

ANTHRACITE.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
FRIDAY, Dec. 28, 1866.

CRUDE—There is no improvement to note in the demand for Crude, and the market continues quiet and dull, though prices are nominally unchanged. Sale of 200 bbls (good gravity) at 9, bbls returned, and 250 bbls at 14, bbls included. Good merchantable oil (40 to 45 gravity) may be fairly quoted at 8 cents, in bulk, and 13½ to 14, in bbls, packages included, though, as already stated, there is very little inquiry for oil, on the spot, at any price. There are some parties willing to contract for next spring delivery, principally on speculation, and we give nine cents as the nominal price for that delivery, some sellers asking 9½ and 9¼, though the last sale reported was the first named figure.

REFINED—The demand for bonded oil seems to be growing less and less, and prices are still tending downward. For immediate delivery in Philadelphia, 28c is the best offer that can now be maintained, which would make the price free on board cars here about 21¼ to 22, and deducting eight cents for cost of barrels, leaves the price of refined oil, in bulk, at 14c—cheap enough in all conscience. Free oil is still quoted at 43 to 44c for 25 and 50 barrel lots of standard brands.

ARRIVALS—We have no arrivals to report, with the exception of two or three small lots from "Smith's Ferry."

St. Louis Market.

ST. LOUIS, December 28.—Tobacco and cotton dull and unchanged. Flour quiet for medium [illegible] grades; superfine, [illegible]; extra, [illegible]; double extra and choice, [illegible]. Wheat firm; prime fall, [illegible]. Corn unsettled and lower, at 72@75c. Oats lower, at [illegible]. Provisions dull. Pork unchanged. Bulk shoulders, packed dry and salt, 6c. Bacon—Clear sides, 12¾c. Whisky unsettled; the only sale reported was at $2,25. Hogs dull; drovers asking an advance, and packers standing off; light, [illegible]; heavy, [illegible].

Cincinnati Market.

CINCINNATI, December 28.—Flour firmer, with a good local demand, at [illegible]. Whisky in good demand, at [illegible] in bond. Hogs [illegible] in good demand; prices higher, [illegible]. Mess Pork firm and in good demand, at [illegible]. Bulk meats steady. Green meats in demand at [illegible]. Lard steady and in moderate demand at [illegible].

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede steadily at this point, and last evening the pier marks indicated scant eight feet in the channel. Thursday night was undoubtedly the coldest night of the season, and it was very cold all day yesterday. The ice in the Allegheny is getting stronger and heavier, and that in the Monongahela is becoming rather formidable, though the Brownsville packets, we believe, continue to make their trips with regularity, but, they, too, will have to quit before long, unless the weather moderates very suddenly.

There has not been a single arrival or departure since our last report aside from the Brownsville packets, and navigation for the present, at least, may be considered at an end from this point out.

The Leonidas and Kate Robinson, are still receiving freight for New Orleans, as are also the Kate Putnam and Glendale, for St. Louis. The Columbia, Capt. Geo. W. Reed, is now in turn for Cincinnati and Louisville, and will probably commence business early next week.

Capt. Charles Beers, of the Rob Roy, is in the city, as is also Capt. Richmond, of the ill-fated Argonaut. John Muirine went in charge of the helm on the Leonora, and he was confident of taking her through safely, the heavy floating ice to the contrary, notwithstanding.

The Ida Rees left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Wednesday, and the Argosy was advertised to leave on Thursday. We clip the following items from the Cincinnati Commercial, of Thursday:

Tuesday night, between eight and nine o'clock, the Silver Spray, bound from New Orleans for Cincinnati, and the United States, bound from Cincinnati for Louisville, collided in East Bend. The Silver Spray's bow struck the United States on the larboard side, opposite the ash-pan, cleaning out one guard to the cook-house. The United States ran on a bar, a short distance from where the collison occurred, and after clearing away the rubbish, and discovering the hull was all right, went back to the Silver Spray, and ascertaining she required no assistance, proceeded on her trip to Louisville. The Silver Spray had a large quantity of cotton stored on her forecastle, which prevented her bow from cutting through the hull and sinking the United States. A portion of the stem-band was broken off, and both guards around the bow of the Silver Spray were torn off, while some twenty-five or thirty bales of cotton were lost overboard and tossed on the United States by the collision. Captain Fenton, of the Spray, has entered protest, and after making repairs will load for New Orleans forthwith. The night was clear when the collision occurred. The local inspectors were engaged yesterday in taking evidence relative to the collision. The Camelia is undergoing repairs in the marine dock. The Centralia leaves the marine ways this morning, in complete repair. The Emperor is undergoing repairs in the Eureka dock. Commodore T. Dean, of the Dean Line, left for New Orleans yesterday. Capt. H. C. Richmond was in the city yesterday, having abandoned the wrek of the Argonaut to the underwriters, who will wreck or raise her.

The Gazette of the same date says: Thieves must have an idea the Sam J. Hale is making money. On Monday night they went through her, visiting the clerk's office, the bar and the texas, but did not find anything of any great value. On Tuesday night they paid a second visit, determined to effect an entrace to the safe. They first procured tools from the engineer's room, and then proceeded up stairs. While in the cabin the fellow who was executing the job was discovered by the watchman. The thief hurled a hammer at him and struck him on the shoulder. The watchman—John Brothers—drew a revolver and fired in return without effect. The rascal fled for the after part of the boat, through the cabin, where, just as he was about to slide down on a fender, the watchman fired again, and as the thief let go all holds and tumbled in the river, it is thought he was wounded and drowned, as nothing more was seen of him.

A new steamer with steel boilers, is thus described by the St. Louis Republican:

Captain Ben Johnson is now building at our wharf a new steamboat for the Missouri river trade, which is designed to be, when completed, one of the best boats ever built for the trade. The hull, built at Metropolis, Illinois, is 245 feet in length, 35 feet beam, with a depth of hold of 6 feet, and is double bolted and fastened throughout. The machinery will consist of three boilers, each 44 inches diameter, 24 feet long, with 6 flues. These boilers are made of Bessemer steel, the first, we believe, of the kind ever constructed for a steamboat in the Western waters.

MISCELLANEOUS.

PROCLAMATION.

CITY OF PITTSBURGH, SS.

In accordance with the provisions of an act of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, providing for the incorporation of the City of Pittsburgh, and of the various supplements to said act, I, William C. McCarthy, Mayor of said City, do issue this, my Proclamation, that on the first Tuesday in January, A. D. 1867, being the first day of the month, the freemen of each ward of said city qualified to vote for members of the House of Representatives of this Commonwealth, will meet at the several places of holding elections in their respective wards and precincts, and elect by ballot, under the provisions of an act of Assembly passed the 11th day of May, A. D. 1857, and in conformity to the above cited authorities, and also to the Ordinances of Councils districting said city.

The citizens of the First ward will elect, by ballot, one person to be a member of the Select Council of said city for two years, and two persons to be members of the Common Council for one year.

The citizens of the Second ward will elect, by ballot, one person to be a member of the Select Council of said city for two years, and three persons to be members of the Common Council for one year.

The citizens of the Third ward will elect, by ballot, one person to be a member of the Select Council of said city for two years, and two persons to be members of the Common Council for one year.

The citizens of the Fourth ward will elect by ballot, one person to be a member of the Select Council of said city, for two years, and three persons to be members of the Common Council for one year.

The citizens of the Fifth ward will elect by ballot, one person to be a member of the Select Council of said city for two years, and five persons to be members of the Common Council for one year.

The citizens of the Sixth ward will elect by ballot, one person to be a member of the Select Council of said city, for two years, and five persons to be members of the Common Council for one year.

The citizens of the Seventh ward will elect by ballot, one person to be a member of the Select Council of said city for two years, and two persons to be members of the Common Council for one year.

The citizens of the Eighth ward will elect by ballot, one person to be a member of the Select Council of said city for two years, and three persons to be members of the Common Council for one year.

The citizens of the Ninth ward will elect by ballot, one person to be a member of the Select Council of said city for two years, and three persons to be members of the Common Council for one year.

The citizens of the Tenth ward will elect by ballot, one person to be a member of the Select Council of said city for two years and two persons to be members of the Common Council for one year.

Each of whom shall be qualified to serve as a member of the House of Representatives of this Commonwealth, at the election to be held as aforesaid, on Tuesday, the first day of January, A. D. 1867.

The electors of the First ward will vote at the Public School House, in said ward.

The electors of the Second ward will vote at the Public School House in said ward.

The electors of the Third ward will vote at the house of Frank McLaughlin, at the corner of Wylie and Tunnel streets, in said ward.

The electors of the Fourth ward will vote at the Public School House in said ward.

The electors of so much of the Fifth ward as lies north and east of Adams street, being precinct No. 1 of said ward, will vote at the Public School House of said ward.

The electors of so much of the Fifth ward as lies south and west of Adams street, being precinct No. 2 of said ward, will vote at the Public School House of said ward.

The electors of so much of the Sixth ward as lies west of Logan street, being precinct No. 1 of said ward, will vote at the Public School House of said ward.

The electors of so much of the Sixth ward as lies east of Logan street, being Precinct No. 2 of said ward, will vote at the Eagle House, No. 101 Fulton street, of said ward.

The electors of the Seventh ward will vote at the Public School House in said ward.

The electors of the Eighth ward will vote at the Public School House in said ward.

The electors of the Ninth ward will vote at the Public School House of said ward.

The electors of the Tenth ward will vote at the house of Andy. Williams & Barily, corner of Sixth and Smithfield streets, in said ward.

Given under my hand and seal of said city of Pittsburgh, this 20th day of December, A. D. 1866.

GREENBACKS

ARE GOOD,

BUT

ROBACK'S BITTERS

ARE BETTER,

Roback's Stomach Bitters,

After years of experience and trial, have proven to be the best remedy extant for all complaints where a tonic and stimulant are required. They never fail to strengthen the weak, impart vigor to the strong, and in all respects restore unaltered and broken down constitutions. No remedy has been received with as much favor as ROBACK'S STOMACH BITTERS.

GREENBACKS

ARE GOOD,

BUT

It is admitted by our most learned physicians that DR. ROBACK'S BITTERS combine the properties of a gentle laxative, an efficient anti-billious agent and the best stomachic known to the world.

ROBACK'S

BITTERS should be used by convalescents to strengthen the prostration which always follows acute disease.

In the billious districts of the West and South, there has, for a long time, been much needed, an article of Stomach Bitters, which, if taken in proper quantities and at the proper time, are a sure preventative of

Billious Fever, Fever and Ague, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Jaundice, Kidney Complaints, and all Diseases of a similar nature, and

Are Better

As a preventive for billious derangement, regulating the system, and giving tone to the digestive organs, than any other known remedy.

Now that the war is over, there will be thousands seeking homes in the South. No person who values his life should go there without having constantly on hand the BITTERS, as a safeguard against epidemics and maladies engendered by miasma and poluted water.

Travelers to and all residents of the rank river bottoms of the west and south, and the valley of the Mississippi and its tributaries, should provide themselves with the
